Vaughan Public Libraries Hosts Community Meeting on New Library, Oct. 3*Attend a community meeting to share your ideas and suggestions*

VAUGHAN, Ontario – A new resource library is being planned for the Maple community. Vaughan Public Libraries invites all area residents to a community open house. Meet the team from ZAS Architects who are working on this project, and provide your feedback on the proposed design and share suggestions on programs and services that you would like to see in the new resource Library. Come and take part in shaping your community!

When: Thursday, October 3, 7 – 9 p.m.

Where: Vaughan City Hall, 2141 Major Mackenzie Drive W.
First Floor, Multi-Purpose Program Room

To register, please email vpl.admin@vaughan.ca or call 905.653.READ (7323), ext. 4103.
