Vaughan Public Libraries Opens Three Locations on Family Day, Feb. 18

VAUGHAN, Ontario – In celebration of Family Day, Vaughan Public Libraries (VPL) will open Bathurst Clark Resource Library, Maple Library and Pierre Berton Resource Library between 1 - 5 p.m. on Monday, Feb. 18.

"Vaughan Public Libraries is more than just books; we are a destination where families can learn and grow together," says Michael McKenzie, Chair, Vaughan Public Library Board. "We welcome families to spend time together and be empowered through the material and services offered at their local library."

During Family Day, parents and children can enjoy board games, activity sheets and Early Literacy Stations. Families can also borrow a wide selection of books, eBooks, CDs and audio books, as well as popular TV series and movies on DVD/Blu-Ray disc.
