

All are welcome in Vaughan Public Libraries.

To ensure that all customers can enjoy VPL privileges the following Rules of Conduct have been adopted.

Conversations should be considerate of others in tone and volume.

Vaughan Public Libraries' property and materials must be treated with respect.

Members of the public may be required to make available for inspection all bags and carrying cases when leaving the building.

The care and safety of your children is your responsibility. Children over the age of 11 may be left unattended.

Registered service animals are welcome in the Library.

Customers are responsible for all personal items while in the library and should not leave them unattended.

Appropriate behaviour is required while visiting Vaughan Public Libraries.

The Chief Executive Officer or designate must authorize photographing or filming on library premises.